

CITY IN BRIEF.

Wife Swears Against Husband. — Mrs. Gladys Showalter, 1627 Cooper street, testified her husband stole her children while she was in Police Court obtaining a warrant for his arrest. She charged her husband, John Showalter, 523 Baum street, with failure to provide. Showalter declared his wife did nothing but read books all day. He said he had to come home and do the housework. The children were in Court with Showalter's sister. Officers of the Humane Society promised to make an investigation and the case was continued by Judge Alexander to to-morrow.
